Call to Worship:

Isaiah 53:1-6 (NIV)

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces he was despised, and we held him in low esteem. Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed. We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Hymn: "Fill My Cup, Lord"

Chorus: Fill my cup Lord; I lift it up Lord;
Come and quench this thirsting my soul.
Bread of Heaven, feed me want no more.
Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole.

Holy Scripture: Luke 22:7-13

Message: "Peter's Lonely Hours"

The Lord's Supper:

Invitation

Prayer of Confession:

Eternal God, whose covenant with us is never broken: we confess that we have fallen short of your will. Our actions harm our neighbors and friends, and our fear keeps us from doing what is right. God, have mercy on us, weak and willful people. We now confess our sins to you, especially those we now offer in silence Lord Jesus, by your life and resurrection we are set apart with a new mission. Cleanse our minds by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, and as you lead us once more to your table, unite us to Christ, who is the bread of life and the vine from which we grow into grace, and to whom be praise forever. Amen.

The Bread and Cup

Prayer of Thanksgiving:

Gracious God, who welcomed us the table of our Lord Jesus and blessed us in ways beyond what we deserve. We are grateful for your gifts that feed our faith and encouraged us to live in your Covenants. We thank you for Jesus Christ by his death gives life to all who trust in him. We thank you for his great love and ask that you give us a willingness to serve others by following the example he has given us. In his precious name we pray. Amen.

Hymn 181: "Were You There?"

Chorus: O! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble!
